

BORDER REGION TALENT PIPELINE

K-16 COLLABORATIVE

The K-16 Collaborative Border Region Talent Pipeline is a team of education, workforce, economic development and industry stakeholders committed to increasing access to high-wage, high-demand careers for diverse and underrepresented local talent in San Diego and Imperial Counties.

Pathways

- Business
- Computing
- Engineering
- Education
- Health

K-12 Districts

Community Colleges

Universities

Community Partners

Employers

Students of color are less likely to earn a living wage, 59% of White students earned a living wage, 43% of Black students earned a living wage and 46% of Latinx students earned a living wage.

In San Diego County, 71.4% of the aggregate income is earned by just 20% of the population.

In Imperial County, the median household income is $47,622 – a fraction of the median household income of $78,672.

- Help to build a diverse local talent pipeline for your company's workforce needs
- Host college interns at no cost to your business
- Support educators in updating their programs to meet future industry needs

- Upgrade and align programs to industry standards
- Participate in communities of practice focused on pathways, dual enrollment, DEI and student supports
- Qualify your programs to become Verified Programs by industry
- Paid student internships in selected pathways

- Support to implement the California College Guidance Initiative
- Upgrade and align programs to industry standards
- Participate in communities of practice focused on pathways, dual enrollment, DEI and student supports
- Improve student retention and success through inclusive supports and high-tech, high-touch advising

San Diego County

Imperial County

For more information, visit www.k16talentpipeline.org

QUESTIONS?
Please contact us:
info@k16talentpipeline.org